

Request for Permission to Publish, Display or Broadcast Reproductions of Photographs from the Watertown Free Public Library Collection

For both commercial and not-for-profit reproduction, the Watertown Free Public Library requires that a Request for Permission form be filled out and submitted prior to the reproduction and delivery of requested materials. Please read the conditions carefully before indicating agreement.

Conditions:

1. Credit must be given to the Watertown Free Public Library and the creator of the work, if known.
2. Credit lines must appear with the image or on a credit page indicating the page number and location on the page for each work. For web site use, credit should appear as a part of or next to the image.
3. Permission to reproduce, publish, broadcast, or display a photograph owned by the Library must be requested in writing on this form. The request should include the title, author, publishing year, name of publishing company or organization responsible, and identification number of the work. Possession of a Library photograph does not constitute permission to use it.
4. A copy of the publication must be donated to the Watertown Free Public Library.
5. If copyright is still in effect, the publisher must seek permission from the creator of the work or his or her heirs.
6. Permission is for one-time use only. The Library retains all rights to the works and they must not be used for any purpose other than that listed on this permission form.
7. Photographs may be cropped to suit design and layout, but they may not be altered or drawn upon so that they look in any way different from the way they appear in the Library's collection.
8. The Library reserves the right to refuse to grant permission and/or provide photograph reproduction services to publishers and individuals who have not complied with its policies.
9. The Library reserves the right to decline to reproduce fragile items.
10. A fee will be assessed for processing/developing and postage/delivery.
